ANNOUNCEMENT.

Having settled in full with my former customers on account of the failure of Floyd, Crawford & Co., with whom I was formerly connected, I am pleased to announce to the people of Barre and vicinity that I have made new connections with a Boston Brokerage House, who have a clean record of nearly twenty years' standing for giving first-class service and promptly paying all obligations, and today am reopening my offices in under the firm name of C. H. GILFILLAN & CO., for the transaction of a general brokerage business in Stocks, Bonds, Grain, Provisions and Cotton.

Rooms 3 and 4, Currier Building,

We are in a position to assure our clients that, with the new connections, they will be accorded the same prompt, efficient and highly satisfactory service that enabled me to build up the large and constantly increasing business which I enjoyed under the old. Respectfully,
C. H. GILFILLAN.

"The Belle of Virginia" a southern war drama, by Justis Adams was presented by the Bennett-Moulton Co. at the opera house last night to a good sized audience. From beginning to end, it is original and clever, and its story is interesting as well as exciting. The company sustained the reputation gained by the first night's performance. Miss Katherine Roth as the Belle of Virginia played the part for all there was in it, proving to the audience that she is not only a premiere lady slide trombone soloist but actress as well. The company as a whole deserve special mention. Madame Bohem and May Hyers, the Cuban nightingales, took the house again by storm. They are two of the most clever singers that have been in Barre for a long time. The play for tonight is the 4-act comedy drama "Outcasts of Society." This is one of John Adams best plays. The scenes are laid in the United States and in South America, many exciting scenes with plenty of good comedy.

Sultan's Son-in-law Exiled.

Constantinople, May 25.—Kemal Pasha, the sultan's son-in-law, and other high officials have been arrested and sent into exile in consequence of the discovery of a secret correspondence between Kemal Pasha and Princess Khadija, daughter of the imprisoned ex-sultan Murad. Kemal Pasha, who is a son of the late Osman Ghazi Pasha, is a general in the Turkish army and mid-de-camp to the sultan.

A Cape May Bank Closed.

Cape May, N. J., May 25.—The First National bank of Cape May has been closed by order of the comptroller of the currency. The bank was recently reorganized, and the present officers of the institution, after a consultation with Bank Examiner Buck, decided to suspend business. It is said that the depositors will be paid in full. Financial difficulties of the former president, it is stated, caused the present trouble.

Two More Explosion Victims Die.

Camden, N. J., May 25.—Two additional deaths, making five in all, have occurred as a result of the explosion in the Independent Fireworks company, on the outskirts of this city, on Monday. Rocco Pinto, an employee, and Michael Senlona, foreman of the factory, are the additions to the death roll. Hannah Parker, another employee, cannot recover.

Wily Deserter Cut the Wires.

Watertown, N. Y., May 25.—Frank Williamson, a Ninth infantry private and electrician at Madison barracks, has deserted and is now believed to be in Canada. He covered his escape by dismantling the telegraph and telephone instruments at the post and reached the Canadian border before the instruments could be replaced in working order.

Falconio Going to Rome.

Philadelphia, May 25.—Mgr. Dionede Falconio, the apostolic delegate at Washington, was tendered a reception at Villa Nova college. Mgr. Falconio will sail for Rome on Saturday, having been summoned by the pope, and may not return to this country.

ODELL OFF FOR EUROPE.

A Passenger on the Kaiser Wilhelm. Declined to Talk Politics.

New York, May 25.—Governor Odell has sailed for Europe on the North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. He left the Fifth Avenue hotel at 9 a. m., accompanied by Reuben L. Fox and Luther B. Little, and went to the foot of West Twenty-third street, where he boarded the Governor Flower, which took him to the dock in Hoboken. Before leaving the hotel he was asked whether he cared to leave a message for the Republican organization before starting for Europe.

"I do not," he replied. "The organization does not need any messages. It can get along all right while I am away."

The governor refused to say a word about the political situation.

"I am going away for rest," he remarked, "and nobody can induce me to mention the subject of politics till I return."

INVESTIGATING JUDGE HOOKER

New York State Bar Association's Subcommittee in Dunkirk.

Dunkirk, N. Y., May 25.—The subcommittee of the grievance committee of the State Bar association appointed to investigate the charges against Supreme Court Justice Warren B. Hooker in connection with the Fredonia postoffice has convened here in executive session. Those present besides the members of the subcommittee were Frederick W. Stevens, who represented the Jamestown Bar association, which preferred the charges, and Justice Hooker and his attorneys, A. C. Wade and William G. Laidlaw.

Chairman Huffcutt stated to the members of the press present that executive sessions were held in accordance with the bylaws of the State Bar association.

Mr. Stevens expressed himself in favor of open sessions and made a plea to that effect to the subcommittee.

New Transcontinental Railroad.

San Francisco, May 25.—The engineers of the transcontinental railroad project, now engaged in surveying a route in the Gould interests, it is said under the corporate name of the Western Pacific Railway company, have decided to abandon the idea of securing an exit from California by way of Beckwith pass, but will take a route through the Sierras, by way of Fredonia pass in Lassen county.
